

Childcare at Riggs Washington DC

Since 1985, White House Nannies has been providing award-winning childcare for discerning parents, visitors, and businesses in the DC area. The company's screening and vetting processes are unrivalled in the childcare industry. As a local, female-owned, family-run business, White House Nannies take the health and safety of guests' children seriously. They require all caregivers to have at least three years of recent professional childcare experience and to be CPR and First Aid Certified.

PRICING

Inclusive Hourly Rate: Pay one rate that is inclusive - covering caregiver's wages, all payroll taxes, liability, and workers' compensation and agency fees. Some guests prefer this option for both the ease of payment — no money is exchanged at point of service — and the additional benefit of insurance coverage. You are not charged until after care takes place.

All children over 12 months (not to exceed 2)	$45/hour
Newborn/Infants 12 months and under	$50/hour
For more than 2 children up to 4 children	+$3/child/hour

Cancellation policy: Once an order has been placed, a Caregiver referred and accepted by the guest or the hotel, the agency will authorize the guest's credit card for the engagement. If the order is subsequently canceled within 24 hours of the care date and there is sufficient time to cancel the Caregiver, the agency will charge the guest a $50 administrative fee. If the order is canceled with insufficient time to cancel the nanny, the hotel or guest ordering the service is expected to pay a minimum two (2) hour fee to compensate the caregiver.
